

February 1, 1933

SENATOR CLARK: Senator Morehead. Pardon me just a moment. I think Senator Nichol wants to make an announcement first.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Mr. President and members of the Legislature, it looks like we are not going to get to it and because this is the week that Lincoln loves us and wants to take us on a bus ride, there are several of you this noon, we wanted to break a little bit early. I wanted to make one announcement, so, Senator Morehead, if you are up first tomorrow, fine, and I urge you to be here on time tomorrow when we crank up. That would help us. But I did want to make the announcement that the dinner engagement at Dr. Rosken's house tonight has been cancelled because of the bad weather, so you are on your own and are going to have to buy your own dinner tonight. Other than that, I would suggest that you recognize Senator Jacobson who has a word for us.

SENATOR CLARK: Did you want to....Senator Jacobson.

SENATOR JACOBSON: I move that this session of the Legislature be adjourned until nine o'clock tomorrow morning.

SENATOR CLARK: You heard the announcement. All those in favor say aye, opposed. We are adjourned until nine o'clock tomorrow morning.

Edited by:

Mary Turner